

The graph illustrates the network structure of militant groups in Nigeria. The nodes represent different militant groups, and the edges represent the relationships or alliances between them. The central nodes, MEND, Police (Nigeria), and MAFSOF, are highly connected, indicating their central roles in the network. Other groups like Boko Haram, Kato Militia, and Itsekiri Militia are also shown, with varying degrees of connectivity.